Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election without traverse of Group II in the reply filed on 11/16/2009 is acknowledged.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

Claims 15-17, 19-22 and 57 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In the claims the step of setting a minimum holding period exchange date and an exchange maturity date using the computer system is vague and indefinite with respect to what step is being performed by the computer system

In the claims the step of structuring an exchange traded exchangeable security with said minimum holding period exchange date and said exchange maturity date using the computer is vague and indefinite with respect to the computational steps and/or call statements are being performed by the computer system.

In the claims the step of providing said exchangeable security with said option for exchanging said exchangeable security for a predetermined specific number of shares of the underlying security using the computer system is indefinite with respect to the computational steps being performed by the computer system;

In the claims the step of setting a pre-determined linked payment paid to the holder of said exchangeable security at said maturity date in response to said exchangeable security being tendered for said underlying security at a time on or after said minimum holding period through said maturity using the computer system is vague and indefinite with respect to what step(s) are being executed by the computer system.

The applicant is invited to contact the examiner to resolve these rejections as, upon resolution of these issues, the claims are otherwise in condition for allowance.
